“...very clean, well-stated aromas and following suit on the palate, this straightfoward look at Pinot very much hews to the rich, but sleek signature style of Dutton-Goldfield.”

“...wild in the nose, black cherry aroma, excellent depth; medium bodied, nice acidity, medium acidity; pomegranate in the flavors; long finish. It is always great to find purity amongst California pinot noirs.” Wilfred Wong

Editors Choice. “Minty fresh and significantly herbal, this is a lighter-styled, stemmy and earthy wine from a longstanding vineyard source that just shines from start to finish. Pomegranate, black cherry and tea notes...” Virginie Boone

“Very ripe and fruity-spicy, almost like a Zinfandel except for the silkiness, this Pinot shows flavors of black cherry pie filling, red currants and pomegranates, with earthier notes of cola and sweet tobacco.

“Quite oaky, with smoky, vanilla and buttered toast aromas, but the fruit is big and able to handle it. Cherries, clove, mocha flavors and a full mouthfeel that’s polished and refined. Really a lovely wine”

“Equal parts cherry-berry fruit and earthier notes of tobacco, cola and rhubarb comprise this dry, complex wine. It’s young, with dusty tannins and firms acids, and possesses a balanced elegance that make it an ideal partner to lamb or beef...”
